The bicycle is bright red with a black seat and riser handlebars. It was taken about 3 p.m. Monday.

100,000 Property Owners On Delinquent Tax Rolls

Los Angeles County Tax Collector Harold J. Ostly this week reminded property owners in the county that June 30 is the final date to pay property taxes. More than 78,000 delinquent tax notices were mailed this week, and an additional 28,000 have been returned undelivered.

A total of 107,055 property owners had not paid taxes due on June 13. Taxes are already delinquent and require a six per cent penalty, in addition to a $3 fee for preparation of the delinquent list.

Ostly asked that property owners who have not received a delinquent notice and have not paid taxes to contact the office of the tax collector. After June 30, all property on which taxes have not been paid will be sold to the state and additional penalties of one per cent per month added. There will also be a $1.50 redemption fee per parcel.

New Nurse Hired for High School

Torrance high schools will now have one full-time nurse on duty at all times following action by the Board of Education Monday evening.

Board members approved a recommendation by Superintendent Dr. J. H. Hull that an additional nurse be hired so that each high school would have a full-time nurse. In making the recommendation, Dr. Hull cited increasing enrollment at the high schools. West High and Torrance High have been sharing nurses with elementary schools.

Board members Bert Lynn and Dr. Kurt Sherry opposed the new addition, citing increasing costs. Both argued that the present ratio of nurses to students was sufficient for the 1963-64 year.
